

TiE Deal Flow Session in Partnership with Indian Angel Network

Dear Vidhya Shrivastava,

TiE Bangalore is pleased to announce its partnership with Indian Angel Network (IAN), India's first and largest group of angel investors, to boost and organize the angel investment ecosystem in Bangalore. With this partnership the ecosystem will benefit by having wider access to angel investors from different parts of the country and the world increasing the chances of worthy startups/ early stage ventures getting capital as well as world class mentoring.

For more information on Indian Angel Networks please visit: www.indianangelnetwork.com

A joint deal flow session will be organized in the month of August. Do please scroll down for further details to participate as an investor or as an investee.
